

Til We Meet Again!^(c)

By Bruce Koehler

May 30th, 2022

To my Brethren, Sisters, too,
In fond remembrance of bonds tha're true.
Your names, forever etched upon The Wall
And elsewhere – on some forgotten Hall.
You stepped forward when called upon,
You showed them all tha' you are strong.
We are one, united, as strong as steel,
And though apart, we're strong still.
Though Memorial Day's just once a year,
It is every day I shed a tear.
Staying strong, remembering all,
For soon I'll join in Valhalla's call.

